One hit WONDERS

The simplest piece when building your outfit is the dress – the perfect building block to a seamless look. Make it work for any event

WORK

KATHY HILL, 58, lives in London, and has twin grown-up children. She needs to look smart but hates a corporate uniform.

Dress, £180, KPI, Essential Antwerp
 Heels, £110, Boden. Leather bag, £275, Lulu Guinness. Necklace, £239, Jamie London. Gold cuff, £525, Dover & Hall

- ✦ A monochrome print brightens up a work outfit.
- ✦ An A-line shape is boxier and looser, and feels much more comfortable.
- ✦ Have fun with your accessories! A colour pop bag or clashing heels show your fashion confidence.

DRESSED-DOWN BOMBER

KATHY HILL, 58, wants to know how to master the pull-together chic weekend wardrobe...

Jacket, £59.99, xs-xl, Mango. Top, £29, 8-18, John Lewis Collection. Denim shirt, £30, 12-32, JD Williams. Jeans, £18, 8-22, F&F at Tesco. Sandals, £38, Next. Bag, £129, Radley. Earrings, £49, Astrid & Miyu

- ✦ The bomber is this year's biker fave. Roomier with a boxy shape, keep it fitted to your body so it doesn't swamp your frame.
- ✦ A printed jacket makes a weekend look feel more interesting – keep to a couple of colours for a coordinated style.
- ✦ Keep the focus on your top half and layer up underneath with a shirt and striped top.
